

Proficiency in LEGAL PRACTICE

OBJECTIVES

This program is designed to enhance the knowledge, skills, and ethics of those practicing in the legal profession in Oman and the GCC Region, and to bridge the gap between the theory of law and the practical application of the law.

LEARNING OUTCOMES

By the end of the Program participants will:

- Be aware of the professional ethics required when practicing law, and how to interact professionally with clients, colleagues, judicial authorities, and the community at large.
- Be able to identify and practically implement the most important civil procedures.
- Be able to identify and practically implement the most important criminal procedures set out in the Penal Code.
- Be able to draft memoranda and defenses in a professional manner.
- Be able to identify and practically implement the relevant procedures for the execution of judgements.
- Be able to draft contracts professionally with confidence and understand how to manage contracts.
- Be aware of what is required to run a legal practice or law firm efficiently.
- Be able to identify and use basic Legal English terminology within the workplace.

TARGET GROUP

Law graduates, Professionals working in law, Other professionals whose jobs require knowledge of law, Legal officials, Public prosecution employees, Private law firms, Lawyers, Trainee lawyers, Legal researchers and consultants

TOPICS TO BE COVERED

Legal Profession Ethics (15 Hours)

The most important procedures for civil and commercial litigation (20 hours)

The most important court procedures for criminal cases (15 hours)

Drafting skills – Memoranda and defenses (20 hours)

The judicial execution of judgments (15 hours)

Labor law issues and disputes (15 hours)

Drafting skills - Commercial contracts (20 hours)

The fundamentals of managing a modern law firm (35 hours)

Legal English (25 hours)